Foreword

Jai Jinendra & Jai Shree Krishna,

Navnat Variety Show 2012 promises to showcase the finest talents from our community. Participants as young as five years old have been rehearsing regularly for the past few months; and the sheer effort shall be seen by the audience.

Over a hundred people have been involved in stringing this show together. Be it rehearsals within their own homes; deciding on the decoration; finalising cuisine; attending weekly rehearsals at Navnat Centre; marketing and budgeting for the show; comperes or ticket selling to name but a few tasks. The Navnat community, once again, has demonstrated our strength to work in unity.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank all the participants, volunteers, their families and well wishers. Your unwavering support reinforces our motivation to serve the community and provide the very best to you all.

I hope you enjoy the show and on behalf of my Executive Committee I would personally like to thank the Variety Show coordinators.

Special Thanks

Namaskar,

A lot of effort and midnight oil has been burnt by the coordinators in presenting this show.

I would personally like to thank Roopal Mehta, President of Navnat Youth. Roopal has taken control of the entertainment side. Roopal has liaised with participants and made them go through the paces and bring them to her high standards. Almost every weekend Roopal has been training the participants at Navnat Centre.

Amit Lathia, Treasurer of Navnat Youth has done tremendous amount of admin work and following up on most things with participants. Amit has also been helping on weekends at Navnat Centre.

Nemish Mehta, our Webmaster is our rising star from Navnat Executive. I had to draw a lot on his experience of the last Variety Show (40th Anniversary) and he kept phoning me virtually every day to make sure I had followed up with tasks in hand.

And for financial control and general assistance, I have called upon Sangeeta Bavisha and Ketan Jashapara.

So my gratitude to the coordinators is immense. Without their unquestioned help and loyalty to the greater cause of Navnat unity, I would have been lost.

I would also like to thank all the volunteers as mentioned in the President's forward without who this show would not be possible.

On behalf of the coordinators, I hope you enjoy the show.

Dhiru Galani
Lead Coordinator
